Dear Mr. Saunders:

Enclosed you will find my check in the amount of $165.47, which I believe closes out my account.

Be assured of my appreciation for the patience exercised at your end of the line in this matter.

At your convenience, I would be grateful for an acknowledgement of the fact that the incident is closed.

Very truly yours,

STATINTL

Dear Mr Saunders

Knowing I was going to be in Washington, I delayed getting in touch with you because I had hoped I would be able to pay the royalties - and my delayed final payment with you.

However, reaching you personally is more difficult than anticipated. Therefore, I am in my means of acknowledging your letter of May 2 & the enclosed check for $1,165.47 and I paid I don't think you expected the money as much as I do at this time and in view of my having already paid one & thirty times this amount I hope you will permit me to delay final payment a bit longer.

Sincerely

In your letter of February 25, 1957, you advised the undersigned that you would shortly remit the balance of $163.47 on your outstanding indebtedness or advise me as to the date on which it would be paid.

Not having received payment nor any notice as to when payment might be expected, I wrote you under date of May 28, 1957, to which I have not received a reply.

Your cooperation in liquidating this outstanding balance will be appreciated. I trust that I will hear from you by return mail as to when payment may be expected.

Very truly yours,
